American Laundry and American Messengers always ready and on time at 82 King street, near Fort.
If you want a good job done on an auto or carriage take it to Hawaiian Carriage Mfg. Co., 427 Queen St.

Among the passengers departing for Hawaii and Maui ports at noon today by the steamer Mauna Kea were J. F. Woods, J. S. Taylor, M. Ormsby, Isaac Pollard and A. J. Stillman.

Included in a party who are making a trip to Maui and Hawaii ports by the Mauna Kea, which sailed at noon today, were Captains Holbrook, Walcott, Willard, Lieutenants James and Sheridan, Major Foster, and others.

A Japanese whine who was a passenger on the Mauna Kea, arriving this morning, had to be carried off the steamer and taken to the Japanese hospital. She was suffering from some internal trouble and it was aggravated by sea sickness.

SHOPPING NEWS —AND— BUSINESS REMINDERS

All domestics underpriced at Blom's this week.
If you are a smoker you cannot make a better resolution than to confine your smoking to the celebrated Owl cigar, the best five-cent cigar on the market.

The increasing activity in real estate is an indication that this is the time to buy. Call on the Real Estate Department of the Hawaiian Trust Company, Ltd.

If you want an exceptionally stylish business suit and one that will fit and retain its shape, let the W. W. Ahana Co. make one to your order from their stock of English and American tweeds and serges.

The Edison phonograph is the original and best reproducer of all vocal and instrumental sounds. Hear it at Hawaiian News Co. and compare it with other machines. Complete stock of fine records.

One of the many reasons that Conroy Roofing never leaks is that each roll is carefully inspected and you never receive an imperfect roll. Lewers & Cooke, Ltd., will gladly send you a sample of this perfect roofing.

NO LICENSE

Hokomura, who runs a clothes cleaning store in the tools of the police on a charge of not procuring a license. It appears that the Japanese was warned by Inspector Turilli that he would have to take out a license, but neglected to do so.

Upon being spoken to a second time, Hokomura only laughed at the inspector, who thereupon ran the Japanese in. Hokomura is now smiling on the other side of his face and may weep when Judge Andrade is through with him tomorrow.

DANCE TOO TOUGH

According to the police there is a probability that a certain show in which a dance is done will be stopped as far as the dancing part of the performance goes.

Several officials who have witnessed the dance, which was made famous by Miss Adams, have expressed their opinion that as at present performed in Honolulu it is indecent. Steps may be taken today to censor the dance, and any further exhibition of the sort may be forbidden.

PORTUGUESE DIED

ON MAUNA LOA.
A Portuguese named Manuel Kueno, who boarded the inter-island steamer Mauna Loa at one of the Kona or Kauai ports of call, was found dead in his stateroom before the vessel had reached McGregor's Landing on the inward trip of that vessel.

Consumption is assigned as the cause of death. The deceased was a young man and claimed that his home was in Honolulu. The remains were conveyed to the morgue awaiting an investigation.

WATERFRONT NOTES

SALTY SAINT NICOLAS was a visitor to the Matson Navigation liner Lurline on Christmas eve and just prior to her arrival at San Francisco. When off the Farallon Islands, Santa Claus in the shape of Captain Weedon appeared. He made a dash for the cabin, where a great Christmas tree, covered with brilliant lights, met his gaze. About the tree were seated the 33 passengers. Santa Claus was a jolly one, and in a short time distributed presents to every one on the ship, and then disappeared as suddenly as he arrived.

THERE IS a large shipment of sugar for Honolulu by the steamer Mauna Loa, which arrived from Kona and Kau ports this morning. The freight list of the vessel includes 4752 sacks sugar, 287 sacks coffee, 48 sacks awa, 23 sacks beans, 95 bales hides, 27 barrels oranges, 45 sacks bran, 145 packages sundries and on deck 31 head cattle. The Mauna Loa arrived with 39 cabin and 47 deck passengers. The liner met with fine weather and smooth seas in crossing the Hawaii channel.

ROUGH WEATHER prevented the discharge of considerable cargo from the inter-island steamer Mauna Loa on her outward trip to Kona and Kau ports. The vessel did not land freight at Hookuna or Hoopuloa on the outward trip but carried the cargo to Kau ports and it was unloaded upon the return of the Mauna Loa. Fine weather was encountered along the Hamakua and Kau coast.

IF THE AMERICAN bark S. G. Wilder does as well as the bark Andrew Welch, that vessel should arrive at Mahukona from San Francisco today. The Welch came down from the coast in fourteen days and the Wilder is now out the same period from the California port. The S. G. Wilder is bringing a cargo of general merchandise to the neighboring island port.

THE STEAMER Maui was reported at Honouliuli loading sugar and the vessel is expected to take on 3588 sacks before returning to Honolulu, according to a report brought to this city by Purser Friele of the steamer Mauna Loa. The steamer Heine was at Paunilo discharging freight.

THE AMERICAN schooner Borealis, with a shipment of lumber consigned to the local agency of Hind, Ralph & Co., is reported to have sailed from Makiito for Honolulu fourteen days ago.

THE STEAMER IWALANI was expected to get away for Mahukona and Kawaihae this afternoon. The vessel goes to the Big Island to pick up a shipment of cattle for Molokai and Honolulu.

IT IS THE INTENTION to dispatch the United States Army transport Sheridan from the navy slip at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The vessel is destined for San Francisco.

THE AMERICAN ship Marion E. Chittcott is now ten days out from Gaviota with a shipment of fuel oil consigned to the local station of the Associated Oil Company.

THE INTER-ISLAND steamer Niihau is scheduled to sail for Honokaa and Kukulihale at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The steamer will take general lines of cargo.

PRIZES READY FOR OUTRIGGERS

Money Received and Will Be Distributed to Winners of Canoe Races for S. S. Cleveland Passengers.

Sixty dollars for prizes was received in the last mail by George Osborne of the Outrigger Club and the following letters that explain themselves:
New York, Dec. 18, 1909.
Mr. George Osborne, c/o Outrigger Club, Honolulu, H. I.

Dear Sir:—I beg to enclose a check for $60 for a canoe prize for the two events with my two cruises next January and February and beg you to please take the matter up with Mr. Ford upon his arrival January 7th, as I just talked the matter over with him and my idea met with his approval.

I cannot thank you all enough for your kindness and shall take pleasure in grasping your hand and thanking you personally on my arrival in Honolulu with the Westward Cruise Feb. 12th. I am glad to say the "Cleveland" is sailing full up with 750 passengers Feb. 12th. There might be half a dozen berths thrown over at the last minute by people backing out, but I hardly expect even that.

With kindest regards and new year greetings, I am,
Yours very sincerely,
FRANK C. CLARK.

New York, Dec. 17, 1909.

My Dear Osborne.
Frank Clark will send you $50 in check for additional prizes during the events taking place while the Clark cruise is in port, January and February dates. He wants, if possible, two small $30 canoes as second prizes, the cups being first prizes. I hope to be in Honolulu January 7th and would like to meet the officers of the club and outline events, etc.

I think a small canoe race, a big canoe race, and a sailing race is all that we should have in that line. The 750 cruisers, on each occasion, wish to see the surfboating, and the surfboating. The prizes, it seems to me, should be for these. However, we can talk it over.

I wish you would state that I spoke to Clark about the omission of Hawaii in his newspaper ads. He will rectify this for the new cruises. I would have spoken to him long ago on this subject but I knew that it would cost him a great many hundred dollars to have new electrotypes made. This he will do, however. He sincerely appreciates the good will Hawaii has shown and I think we will get him as a resident.

My regards to the boys. Hope we will have time to get our Col. Sam Parker canoe from the big island and the big old Punahoa canoes in shape before the February event.

Yours truly,
A. H. FORD.

To Geo. Osborne, Treasurer Outrigger Club, Honolulu, Hawaii.
P. S.—Don't let the boys think I am working Clark for the club. It is all I can do to hold him back. He wanted to do all sorts of things, but let him meet our boys and see the club first. Clark and I live at the same hotel and have known each other for years and have many interests in common, both in the Pacific and the Mediterranean. He used to be the best diver in the Holy land and is a lover of water sports.

HIGH PRICES BUT MARKET IS QUIET

Ed Pollitz Promises To Hold Hutchinson Little Longer

Ed Pollitz will return to San Francisco on the Siberia and he hasn't sold Hutchinson plantation.
This was about all the brokers had this morning to interest themselves with. Business was quiet. There are buying orders in the market but no at the prices prevailing on the Exchange, and there seems little prospect of any drop in quotations.

Ewa sagged off twenty-five cents a share this morning but the offering are not large. One of the unexpected features of the market when it opened up was the softening of the price of McBryde. There were bids in plenty at 5.25 but nothing is offered at that figure. Oiaa on the other hand is a little weak.

Brokers are expecting a season of quiet because no one will sell and the buyers are not yet educated to the high range of prices at the opening of the new year.

PROMOTION IS DUE TO AMERICAN WIFE

Marshall Field's Daughter Has Influence Great Enough to Place Her English Sailor Husband in Admiralty Rank.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The promotion of Captain David Beauty to the rank of Rear Admiral in the English navy establishes a record in naval annals. He becomes the youngest admiral in the service and was promoted before he served his customary six years as a captain. His rapid rise in mainly due to the strong influence of his wife the daughter of the late Marshall Field of Chicago, in royal circles. She is not only rich but is popular and handsome, and both the King and Queen are fond of her.

It was her influence that made her husband an aide to the King. His jump to flag rank was also due to petticoat influence.
Still Captain Beauty was one of the distinguished men of the navy. He was with the famous Nile flotilla under Kitchener and in 1900 during the Boxer uprising in China he again showed great bravery. He was promoted captain at the early age of 29, and now at 38 he is a rear admiral—an even earlier age than marked Nelson's career.

S. R. Melvain, the game colored boxer who fought Dick Sullivan here some years ago, is in town. Melvain is on his way to the Coast and aboard the transport Sheridan.
